

Matthew
Chapter 5
Student

Contents: The “Sermon on the Mountain”. The quintessential attitude of a true “*Follower of CHRIST”. Believers are required to think/live/speak as “salt and light” and in so doing show the attitude and behavior that will provide the “heaven on earth” conditions mention in the model prayer. (See Matthew 6:7-13 and Luke 11:2-4) GOD’s fulfillment of The Law through the teachings of CHRIST. Corrected attitudes and behaviors regarding: Anger, Lust, Divorce, Oaths, Relatiation and Treatment of Enemies.

Characters: GOD, JESUS.

Conclusion: A child of GOD will be recognized and identified by their “salt and light” behavior. It (their behavior) should have an influence in the community in which they live.

Key Word: Sermon on the Mount, 1, 2.

Strong Verses: 3-16, 18, 28, 32, 39, 44, 48.

Striking Facts: 3. The teachings from the Sermon on the Mountain sermon are applicable right now and not for the second coming of CHRIST. There is no need of instruction when THE MASTER returns.

Questions:

1. What are the requirements to be called “great” in the kingdom of heaven.
2. What is the punishment for calling your brother a worthless fool?
3. What should you do when you remember that you have broken fellowship with your brother?
4. How should we handle conflicts?
5. What are the “acceptable” grounds for divorce?

Bonus Question: Should we hate our enemies? When should we hate?
