

Matthew
Chapter 8
Student

Contents: JESUS heals 1.) A leper, 2.) The centurion's servant, and 3.) Peter's mother-in-law. Some disciples were tested. Calming the stormy seas. The ungrateful people of Gadara.

Characters: JESUS, leper, The centurion's servant, Peter's mother-in-law, two men of Gergesenes, disciples.

Conclusion: JESUS is the divine SON of GOD, sovereign over all physical ailments, over all circumstances, over the powers of nature, over the evil emissaries of satan and over sin (Matthew 9:5). Faith requires us to believe and as a result, we will find rest and deliverance at all times in HIS presence.

Key WORD: Sovereign CHRIST, 17, 27.

Strong Verses: 13, 27.

Striking Facts: 29 While we may deny the deity and power of CHRIST, demons know the truth. HIS divine SONship is proven mightily by the demonstration of HIS power in all places/times. HE was not only SON of GOD, but SON of Man (20, 24) and having been subjected to all human testings, He became a perfect sacrifice and substitute for all believers on the Cross.

Questions:

1. What surprised JESUS?
2. Why was JESUS irritated at the man who wanted to bury his father?
3. What is the implication of verses 10-12.
4. What did the demons say when JESUS came near them?
5. Why did JESUS command the leper to pay an offering?
6. What did the leper ask JESUS? (Verse 2)

Bonus Question: what was the basis for JESUS' irritation in the boat? Was it fair for JESUS to rebuke them?

Why did the disciples believe the demon?

Should all believers become missionary?
