

Leviticus
Chapter 27
Student

Contents: Laws concerning dedicated persons and things.

Characters: GOD, Moses.

Conclusion: We should be cautious in making vows and constant in keeping those we have made. What is once devoted to the LORD should be HIS forever by a perpetual covenant.

Key Word: Vows 2.

Strong Verses: 30.

Striking Facts: Let us not think because we are not tied to ceremonial laws that we are free of religious obligations. "Having boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of JESUS, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith" saying "Blessed be GOD for the gift of HIS SON."

Questions:

1. Price of a vow of:

Age	Gender	Amount
< 5 years	Male	_____
< 5 years	Female	_____
5-20	Male	_____
5-20	Female	_____
20-60	Male	_____
20-61	Female	_____
➤ 60	Male	_____
➤ 60	Female	_____
The Poor		_____

2. Everything promised (sanctified/offered) is _____?
3. What else can you dedicate?
4. What is the redemption price?
5. Can a man doomed to death be dedicated to avoid death?

Bonus Question: Why should we dedicate anything else, if we tithe?